

HARRY S. TRUMAN
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK BUILDING
KANSAS CITY 6, MISSOURI

June 28, 1920	One happy year.
June 28, 1921	Going very well.
June 28, 1922	Broke and in a bad way.
June 28, 1923	Eastern Judge. Eating
June 28, 1924	Daughter 4 mo. old.
June 28, 1925	Out of a job.
June 28, 1926	Still out of a job.
June 28, 1927	Presiding Judge - eating again
June 28, 1928	All going well. Piano.
June 28, 1929	^{Al Smith} Panic in October.
June 28, 1930	Depression. Still going.
June 28, 1931	Six year old daughter
June 28, 1932	Roads finished
June 28, 1933	Employment Director.
June 28, 1934	Buildings finished.
June 28, 1935	^{Ran for the Senate} U.S. Senator, Junston.
June 28, 1936	Resolutions Philadelphia. Roosevelt reelected.

HARRY S. TRUMAN
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK BUILDING
KANSAS CITY 6, MISSOURI

June 28, 1937 Grand time in Washington.
June 28, 1938 Very happy time. Margie 14.
June 28, 1939 Named legislation.
June 28, 1940 Senate fight coming.
June 28, 1941 Special Senate Committee
Margie wants to sing.
June 28, 1942 Also a happy time
June 28, 1943 Lots of work.
June 28, 1944 Talk of V.P. Bad business
June 28, 1945 V.P. + President. War End
June 28, 1946 Margie graduate + singer
80th Congress.
June 28, 1947 Marshall Plan + Greece + Turkey
A grand time 28th Anna
June 28, 1948 A terrible campaign. Happy day.
June 28, 1949 President again. Another happy day.
June 28, 1950 Korea - a terrible time.
June 28, 1951 Key West - a very happy day.
June 28, 1952 All happy. Finish Jan 20, 1953
June 28, 1953 Back home lots of okes.
June 28, 1954 A happy 35th

HARRY S. TRUMAN
FEDERAL RESERVE BANK BUILDING
KANSAS CITY 6, MISSOURI

June 28, 1955 All cut up but still happy.
June 28, 1956 A great day - more election.
June 28, 1957 Well here we are again
as Harry Jones would say.

Only 37 to go for the diamond jubilee!

HST